

Happy Holidays Family Sunday
Sunday, December 10, 2017, 11 am to 4 pm
Free with gallery admission

Drop-in Art Workshop

Education Space

11 am to 4 pm

Satisfy your creative whims! Drop-in and explore landscape, line, and shape as you make Group of Seven inspired holiday cards for family and friends using printmaking and chine-collé techniques.

Bilingual Family Tour

Grand Hall (bottom of Gallery 14 ramp)

12 pm (approximately 35-40 minutes in length)

Through interactive activities, this family-friendly tour will explore the Alex Janvier and The Group of Seven Guitar Project exhibitions.

Family Tour (English)

Grand Hall

1 pm (approximately 35-40 minutes in length)

This family-friendly tour will explore The Art of Canada: Director's Cut and Annie Pootoogook: Cutting Ice exhibitions. Through interactive activities, families will learn about the creative process involved in painting, drawing and printmaking.

Public Tours (English)

1) Grand Hall

12:30 pm

Tour of the upper level galleries, approximately 45 minutes in length.

2) Grand Hall

2 pm

Tour of the lower level galleries, approximately 45 minutes in length.

Holiday Concert

Gallery 8

2 to 3 pm

This special musical performance features trumpeter/composer Suresh Singaratnam with vocalist Joanna Majoko, pianist Stu Harrison and the Blythwood Winds ensemble. The repertoire will include the world premiere of a new carol, sung in both English and French, and composed by Suresh Singaratnam in honour of Canada 150.