

The McMichael Canadian Art Collection is the only major gallery with a mandate to collect, preserve and celebrate Canadian art exclusively.

We tell stories about the country through our permanent collection, special exhibitions, educational and public programming, and community outreach. The McMichael has over 6,500 distinctive works in the permanent collection, and we welcome more than 110,000 visitors annually.

The gallery is a pilgrimage site for the Group of Seven, with a powerful collection of their paintings and drawings. It is also home to the Tom Thomson Shack and the place of rest of six of the seven core Group of Seven painters and their spouses.

Patrons Circle members enjoy a deeper involvement with our collection and a more personal relationship with curators, artists, authors, and more, as well as access to exclusive private events and experiences. Your support is essential to the presentation and development of the permanent collection, the enhancement of our excellent programming, and the enrichment of our spectacular grounds and facilities now and for the future.
